

SHELTER
because housing matters

Framing up the key points for the Department communique – Session 1:

Jackson Hills

SHELTER
because housing matters

1. Individual Reflection

- Silently write down your key issues/topics that need to be addressed in the department communique
- Please use green paper for your individual reflections
- 10 minutes

SHELTER
because housing matters

2. Table Reflection

- Now work with the others on your table to group individual issues and produce a list of the top 3 - 5 themes or groupings of issues
- Please list up to three dot points under each of these themes to support/summarise the issue
- Please use yellow paper for your table reflections
- 15 minutes

SHELTER
because housing matters

3. Group Reflection ('around the grounds')

- Read out a theme from your table, along with up to 3 key points to summarise
- Tables with similar themes can group these together as they are mentioned
- The themes will be summarised on butchers' paper for voting and prioritisation
- Facilitators to scribe to Butchers paper for group reflections
- 25 minutes

SHELTER
because housing matters

4. Voting on top issues and key questions

- Delegates each given three dots to vote as they choose.
- Place your dots on the top themes that you would like raised in the department communique.
- Remember to also list your top questions for the department in the 'parking lot'
- 5 minutes