What is a Service Integration Group?

A Service Integration Group (Group) is a team of different agencies (community and government) that work together in your area. There are many Groups across Queensland, but only the Group in your region (Your Group) will help you. Members of Your Group can include Housing Service Centres, Community Housing Providers, and other agencies. Q Shelter helps to organise and support each Group, including Your Group.

How Can the Group Help You?

Your Group helps people who are homeless, at risk of homelessness, or struggling to keep their homes. They meet every few weeks to discuss how to support people and families in need.

Who Is in Your Group?

The Group members can include services that help with:

- Housing and rental support
- Health needs, including mental health and disability services
- Alcohol and drug treatment
- Aged care
- Cultural needs
- Family support and welfare
- Legal help
- Community participation
- Employment and education

What Does Your Group Value?

Your Group cares about you as an individual. They will:

- Listen to your needs and involve you in decisions (client-informed) through the Referring or Lead Worker who will represent this at the meetings.
- Create a safe environment for everyone, including First Nations peoples, people from different cultural backgrounds, people who identify as LGBTQIA+ people with disability and others from diverse communities.

Sharing Your Information

To help you, members of Your Group need to share information about you with each other. Occasionally we need to share with agencies who are not a part of the Group. If this was needed, we would seek your consent through your referring or lead worker.

What Information Will Be Shared?

- Your goals, background, and current situation.
- Your personal details like name, contact info, income, and preferred services.
- Your health information, such as conditions and treatments.
- Family information, like your next of kin or close support persons.
- Any other information that can help assess your housing and support needs (e.g., financial difficulties, legal issues, family violence, etc.).

Why Is This Information Shared and How Is The Information Stored?

This information will be discussed during meetings to plan and report on how to best help you. The information shared with Your Group is recorded by the Service Integration Facilitator (SIF). The SIF securely stores all information in a password-protected Client Management System overseen by the Department of Housing and Public Works. This ensures your information is safeguarded in line with privacy laws.

Your Consent

If you want Your Group to help you, your information needs to be shared among the Group members. We ask for your permission (consent) to do this by signing this form.

What If You Don't Agree?

If you don't agree to share your information, it won't affect the services you're already receiving. However, Your Group may not be able to provide additional support without sharing your information.

Your Privacy Rights

- The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Information Privacy Act 2009 (Qld) protect your personal information.
- QShelter's Privacy Policy explains how your information is collected, used, and stored. You can read this policy online: <https://qshelter.asn.au/privacy-policy/> .
- Your information will be collected by your Referring Worker or another agency and then shared with the SIF and Your Group.
- Your information will mostly stay within Your Group, but if it's in your best interest, it might be shared with other Groups after talking to you first.
- Sometimes, your information will be used anonymously for research or reports, so no one will know it's about you.

Your Rights

- You can ask to see your personal information at any time.
- Your Group will only use your information to provide care and support with your consent.
- Your information won't be shared overseas or used for marketing.

Questions?

If you have questions or concerns about how your information is managed, contact your Referring Worker or Q Shelter's Service Integration Backbone Support Team - P: 07 38915900.

Changing Your Mind

You can change your mind about sharing your information at any time.
