

Creating an Olympic Housing Legacy Plan

QUT Ethics Approval Number 10586

Research team - Faculty of Business and Law, Queensland University of Technology (QUT)

Senior Lecturer Dr Lyndall Bryant

lyndall.bryant@qut.edu.au

(+617) 3138 2929

Statement of consent

This information forms part of the registration process, requiring agreement prior to completing registration]

By [checking this box], you are indicating that you:

- You understand this seminar is part of a research project, conducted jointly by QUT and QShelter, the output of which will be a Housing Legacy Plan, a platform for knowledge exchange, advocacy and collaborative thinking, and aims to influence long-term housing policy beyond the event itself.
- Have read and understood the Participant Information Sheet regarding this research project.
- Have had any questions answered to your satisfaction.
- Understand that if you have any additional questions, you can contact the research team.
- Understand that your participation is voluntary, that you are free to withdraw without comment or penalty at any stage during the seminar, and can elect not to answer questions or activities you do not feel comfortable with.
- Understand that if you have concerns about the ethical conduct of the research project you can contact the Research Ethics Advisory Team on +61 7 3138 5123 or email humanethics@qut.edu.au.
- Understand that if you experience feelings of discomfort or distress, QUT provides psychology, family therapy or counselling services for research participants of QUT research projects. More information is included in the Participant Information Sheet.
- Understand that the research project will include note taking and seminars may be recorded.
- Agree to participate in the research project.

Please return the signed consent form to lyndall.bryant@qut.edu.au